Greetings!

Warm August greetings from the Dorothy 'Bibby' Alford Campus in Waterville

It has been another very productive month here at The Maine Children's Home. The staff has also been using vacation time to refresh and get ready for the change of seasons that takes place when the students return to school.

The Lunder building has been quiet for most of the summer as both the teen parents and AOS 92 alternative students have been enjoying summer break. The maintenance team has been busy cleaning, painting and getting the building ready for another season of learning and activity, as well as completing a number of improvements across the campus.

Although it's still summertime (barely!), we have been pleased with the steady stream of calls and visits from community members and friends eager to volunteer and help with our various programs. We welcomed a team of six volunteers from a mission team from Springfield, Massachusetts, that was in Maine at Camp Mechuwana; steady visits from the Friends of The Maine Children's Home; dozens of helpers working to stock up for the Christmas Program; and the dynamic team preparing for the Twelfth Annual Passion for Fashion benefit on Thursday, September 22. It takes a lot of hands to lift up the children, youth and families we serve. Have an idea of how you and your group can help? Call our development office at 207-872-0261.

I am humbled by the commitment I see every week in the hard work of children, youth and families to grow, to learn and be successful. Through much community investment of time, talent and support we are making life better for hundreds of children and families every month. Their success is your success.

In sincere gratitude,

Richard Dorian, Executive Director

Teen Parent School Program Happenings

Teen Parent School Program Needs a Vehicle

The Sharon Abrams Teen Parent School Program is in need of a large passenger vehicle, such as a minivan. One of the ongoing challenges for nearly every pregnant or parenting teen is figuring out how to get to and from our Waterville campus each day. We draw youth from a 55 mile radius of our campus. Some students drive or need rides to get to school and back home, while others spend nearly two hours each day riding to and from the program. The transportation is not a covered service and many students are forced to miss days of school and make up work later due to this barrier. A safe vehicle would help with safety and participation, and allow us to install proper car seats and transport students (and their children) to and from school and appointments. Presently, we are piecing together options on an ad-hoc basis that makes planning very difficult. The Maine Children's Home is a tax exempt organization and your gift of a vehicle may be tax deductible. The vehicle does not have to be new, but inspected, safe and in good operating condition. Ideally, we'd like to find a minivan that could hold up to six people. Please let us know if you can help in any way with this. Call 207-873-4253.

We Have Openings!

We are very excited to share that we currently have openings in the Sharon Abrams Teen Parent School Program. We have had a number of visits but still have more space to serve pregnant or parenting teens that are seeking to complete their regular high school studies and participate in the program.

The Sharon Abrams Teen Parent School Program at The Maine Children's Home is an alternative high school program for pregnant and parenting teens. Our school program has been in existence since 1974. Open to pregnant and parenting teens statewide, it provides prenatal and parenting instruction along with academic and life skills courses. All students are registered as Waterville High School students and work toward earning a Waterville High School diploma.

The program takes place in Lunder Hall at The Maine Children's Home Dorothy "Bibby" Alford Campus. There are five certified teachers on location, and additional teachers from Waterville High School come to teach specific courses. A full-time clinician is available to support students with individual counseling. On-campus childcare is also available and free of cost to students while enrolled in our program.

Achieving financial and emotional independence is a tremendous feat in anyone's life. Early parenthood can make the journey more challenging but not hopeless. Our aim is to remove as many deterrents as possible and to build on the strengths of each young parent. Our goal is to help teen parents understand the concept of positive parenting, to support and assist them as they learn to deal with troublesome issues and to provide a high quality and relevant education so they can acquire the knowledge and skills to move forward in a healthy lifestyle.

Education Options

- High school completion
- Pre-natal classes
- Parenting classes
- Independent living

Additional Support

- Individual counseling
- Psycho-educational groups
- On-site childcare
- College and career support
- Referrals

The Commitment to Excellence in Adoption Grows

The Maine Children's Home for Little Wanderers has grown and changed a great deal since its services began in Augusta in 1899. What hasn't changed is the commitment in every adoption to see children ethically placed in loving adoptive homes. The Maine Children's Home is a comprehensive Maine adoption agency, offering professional services and support to all members of the adoption triad, including adoptive parents, birth parents, and adoptees. Since adoption is a life-long commitment, we firmly believe in an educational process that allows all participants to make informed decisions. The Maine Children's Home also believes in making a life-long commitment to the families it serves.

We are proud to share that the adoption unit staff have more than 155 years of professional social work and direct adoption experience. Our caring staff members are here to guide families through the entire process and to offer support long after the adoption has taken place. Our experienced adoption staff is ready to help find the best program to meet your needs.

A number of people continue to ask if our agency is an orphanage. While our 117-year history includes a period of time as an orphanage, there are no children living on our main campus in Waterville. Our focus for the past hundred years has been placing children into loving families. Today, our Hague-accredited adoption program is Maine's longest-operating adoption program, providing expert assistance to those hoping to adopt internationally or domestically.

Adoption services we provide:

- Domestic infant program (in-state and inter-state)
- International program
- Private home studies
- Birth parent services
- Post adoption services
- Referral services as needed

Please reach out to Lindsay and the adoption team if you think adoption might be a goal for your family. It's never too early to start planning and researching. We are pleased to share that we have a new lending library in the suite of offices in the Parks Building on campus.

The Whittaker family recently worked with The Maine Children's Home's adoption team.

If you're interested in learning more about adoption services, we invite you to attend a free informational meeting the last Wednesday of every month at 6 p.m. at The Maine Children's Home campus (93 Silver Street, Waterville). For more information please contact Lindsay Bragdon, adoption program coordinator, at 207-873-6350 ext. 210, or via email at lbragdon@mainechildrenshome.org.
